

OACUBO Speaker Form

Name: Michael J. Davis, J.D.
Title: Special Assistant to the President for Compliance/
Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice
Organization: Southeastern Oklahoma State University
Address: 425 W. University Boulevard, Durant OK, 74701
Phone: (580) 745-3090
Email: mdavis@se.edu

Title of Presentation:

Top 20 Ethics Issues for State Employees

Short Session Description:

Please provide a 20-30 word description or outline of your presentation idea. This will be used as the basis of the description for the program materials on the web. Please DO NOT use abbreviations or acronyms in your description. The staff reserves the right to edit content for brevity and grammar.

The State of Oklahoma enforces important ethics laws for state employees, including rules about receiving gifts, offering gifts, interactions with vendors and lobbyists, political activities, solicitation, misuse of state resources or property, and decision-making with a conflict of interest. This presentation explores these laws and offers an analytical framework to determine potential violations, as well as best practices to avoid ethical issues in the workplace.

Learning Objective & Outcomes:

Please indicate the specific knowledge & skills attendees can expect to acquire by attending your session. Your response should complete the following sentence: At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

Legal analysis and understanding, analytical framework for making ethical decisions, and generalized knowledge on state ethics commission guidelines and regulations.

Speaker Bio:

This is used for program introduction. Include current position and one or two career highlights. Please limit to 25 words.

Assistant Professor and Attorney with ten years of experience in Higher Education law, Title IX, civil rights litigation, and internal investigations. Researcher of organizational behavior, ethical, and legal issues in law enforcement agencies.

OACUBO Speaker Form