

OACUBO Conference – March 24th, 2021, 1:00 – 2:00 p.m.

Telework Policy – HR perspective of Telework and tips for having a successful telework program at your school

What Will You Learn: This session will provide higher education business professionals the latest information on Telework, and potential liability exposure and how to implement a successful Telework Policy even after the pandemic.

- Participants will learn the latest regulations regarding telework.
- Participants will be exposed to the potential for Telework to create HR issues within your departments and how to minimize those risks.

Who Should Attend:

- Vice Presidents, AVP's & Managers for Administration, HR,
- Business Officers

Course Information:

- Prerequisites: None
- Advanced Preparation: None
- Level: Basic
- Type: Group internet-based training
- Length: 50 minutes

Meet The Presenters: Ty Anderson, Assistant Vice President of Administration and Finance – East Central University

Ty is a graduate of Southwestern Oklahoma State University and earned a MBA from Southeastern Oklahoma State University. He provides leadership and advice in the areas of human services, payroll, and student accounts receivable. Also serves as Title IX Coordinator, ADA Coordinator, and Affirmative Action Coordinator for East Central University.

Marjorie Robertson, Director of Human Resources-Southeastern Oklahoma State University

Marjorie graduated with a BS degree from Southeastern Oklahoma State University and is finishing up her 32nd career year at SE. As HR Director she has oversight of payroll, benefits, advertising, performance appraisals, leave, and university policies. She enjoys the ever-changing world of HR.

CPE Information:

- Estimated 1 CPE Credit
- Field of Study: Industry/Government
- Note: Each person must register individually to earn CPEs