COLLEGE of PROFESSIONAL and CONTINUING STUDIES

ECON 5853-104: World Economic Development

Course Description:

The purpose of the course is to develop an understanding of current economic problems and policy issues in developing countries. The course will review the evolution of development thinking and current policy debates and will examine the development experience of different countries and regions over the post war period. We will also survey different economic theories of development. Some of the questions that will be addressed include the following: a) What are the sources of current development challenges including historical, institutional, geographical, environmental, and cultural factors? b) How do different economic theories approach to the issue of underdevelopment? c) What is the role of economic globalization in determining the future development paths of developing countries?

Assignments, Grading, and Due Dates:

There will be four quizzes in the form of short essays from assigned readings at the end of each section. They will be posted on Canvas and you will have ten days to complete them. Therefore, you are expected to complete the assigned readings before the end of each section. You are expected to use all required readings in each section to answer the questions.

Final Examination:

The final exam will in take-home format with essay questions and will be given one week before the last day of class.

Term Paper

The term paper should be on a problem or issue that is related to our class readings, or any topic dealing with economic development issues and practices. It should be focused, analytic, reflect critical thinking of materials read and must be well-documented with complete references given (at least 10 sources). Internet material should be used with care and very sparingly (Wikipedia is not acceptable). The topic for the term paper must be approved by the instructor in advance. A one to two page proposal of your paper is due on May 15, 2019 and the final paper is due on June 20, 2019. Both the proposal and the final copy of your paper need to be submitted online through Canvas. More details on term paper are provided on Canvas.

POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Note: Attendance/absences do not apply to online courses. However, participation in all course activities is extremely important to student success in online courses.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution's policy regarding "I" (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any "I" (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on "financial aid probation." If the "I" grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student's Financial Aid may be suspended make the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student's academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc...in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc...; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student's Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at <http://studentconduct.ou.edu/>
