

The University of Oklahoma

College of Continuing Education

Advanced Programs – Course Syllabus

Course Title:

Seminar in Leadership in Organizations

Course Number:

HR 5033-104

Course Description:

This course is designed to respond to the tremendous need for a leadership in the rapidly changing environment of the world in which we now live. A model empowering people in all positions to focus on vision enhances productivity as well as transforms the culture to value human relations more consistently. The model of stewardship will be explored as an alternative to traditional concepts of leadership and management emphasizing visioning, communications, and group dynamics. The scientific model of chaos theory and quantum physics will provide a framework of understanding for this paradigm shift as an explanation of how and why this model can and does work. The class will be conducted following these models which will require active participation by the students in designing and implementing the work which we do.

Class Dates, Location and Hours:

Dates: August 11 – 13 & 18 – 20, 2017
Location: Bldg. 201 SE, Tinker AFB, Oklahoma.

Course Objectives:

By completing this course, students will:

- discuss and explore the concept of leadership traditionally and contrast this with the model of stewardship;
- contrast leadership and management skills;
- examine the relevance of leadership to organizational goals and mission;
- explore general issues regarding effective leadership;
- explore a new model of leadership called stewardship; and
- learn the skills of visioning, communication, group dynamics to effectively utilize empowerment.

Assignments, Grading and Due Dates:

1. The texts may be viewed as resource books. It will not be possible to cover all the texts' contents in class; therefore, read all the texts before class.
2. Complete all the exercises in Learning to Lead before class begins in order to be prepared to participate in class.
3. Write a seven to ten-page paper addressing some aspect of leadership that you think is important, explaining its importance and how you could utilize this aspect of leadership to become a more effective leader. APA format required.
4. Keep a daily journal of your experiences and learning in class and turn in or put in drop box by the beginning of the next class. This may be hand written or typed and at least a page.
5. A group presentation will be assigned by the second day of class and presentations will begin Friday. The presentations will be about 20 minutes.

Grading:

This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D or F. 100-90 points = A; 89-80 points = B; 79-70 points = C; 69-60 points = D; and 59-0 points = F.

Final Examination	Last class session	30%

Notice: Failure to meet assignment due dates could result in a grade of I (Incomplete) and may adversely impact Tuition Assistance and/or Financial Aid.

POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Attendance and participation in interaction, individual assignments, group exercises, simulations, role playing, etc. are valuable aspects of any course because much of the learning comes from discussions in class with other students. It is expected that you attend all classes and be on time except for excused emergencies.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution's policy regarding "I" (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any "I" (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on "financial aid probation." If the "I" grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student's Financial Aid may be suspended making the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student's academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc...in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc...; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student's Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at <http://studentconduct.ou.edu/>

Accommodation Statement

The University of Oklahoma is committed to making its activities as accessible as possible. For accommodations on the basis of disability, please contact your local OU Site Director.

Adjustment for Pregnancy/Childbirth-Related Issues

Should you need modifications or adjustments to your course requirements because of documented pregnancy-related or childbirth-related issues, please contact me as soon as possible to discuss. Generally, modifications will be made where medically necessary and similar in scope to accommodations based on temporary disability. Please see <http://www.ou.edu/content/eoo/faqs/pregnancy-faqs.html>.

Title IX Resources

For any concerns regarding gender-based discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, stalking, or intimate partner violence, the University offers a variety of resources, including advocates on-call 24/7, counseling services, mutual no-contact orders, scheduling adjustments, and disciplinary sanctions against the perpetrator.
