IAS 5940-237: Topics in International Studies: Eastern European Politics

Course Description:
This course is designed for Master’s program with emphasis in International Relations. The course examines the developments of contemporary politics across Eastern and Central European countries. These states have undergone a dramatic transformation since World War II - politically, economically, and socially. In order to understand these developments, this course looks at how East Central European states came under the dominance of the Soviet Union, how the rebellious societies contested and resisted the communist regimes, and finally, how those regimes collapsed in the late 1980s. The course also examines the most recent transformations and challenges – nationalism, democratization, the “color revolutions” of the early 21st century, and tensions in relations between Russia and the West.

Course Objectives:

The objective of the course is to provide students with an understanding of major themes of totalitarianism, the “spheres of influence” and their relevance in contemporary Europe, democratic transitions and its challenges, and importance of historical legacies in analyzing the post-communist regimes.

Assignments, Grading and Due Dates

Tuesday, July 10: Cold War 2

Essay-1 (Due on first class session. Bring hard copy to class and upload the electronic version to Canvas).

The military conflict between Russia and Ukraine was quite unthinkable just a few years ago, as the two countries share historical legacies, language, religion, and institutions. The media, policymakers, and scholars have used several narratives to explain the armed conflict between Russia and Ukraine, attributing the blame to external factors, such as (a) Russian involvement and its support of the rebels in Eastern Ukraine, (b) the role of the NATO and the West, or (c) domestic causes within Ukraine.

a. How can we explain this conflict? Is this a proxy war between Russia and the West? Is this conflict caused by external structural factors, such as balance of power, interference in the sphere of influence, and expansion of Euro-Atlantic institutions? Or, should we look for domestic explanations of the crisis within Ukraine? What is the role of Russia in this conflict? Finally, does this conflict pose a threat to the international order and security?

b. In your response, make sure to clearly identify and explain alternative factors accounting for the armed conflict in Ukraine, explain which factor(s) you find to be the most convincing, and explain why.

Wednesday, July 11. What is Eastern Europe? Fault Lines, Origins of Communism, and Spheres of Influence

5. Primary documents
   a. Bohlen "Poland at the Teheran Conference" in Stokes (28-30)
   b. Churchill "The Percentages Agreement" in Stokes (30-31)
   c. Truman "The Truman Doctrine" in Stokes (33-37)
   d. Zhdanov "The Two-Camp Policy" in Stokes (38-42)
   e. Berman "The Case for Stalinism" in Stokes (44-50)

Thursday, July 12 Resistance to communist rule and communism’s collapse
3. Primary documents
   a. Brezhnev "The Brezhnev Doctrine" in Stokes (131-134)
   b. Gorbachev "A Common European Home" in Stokes (265-267)

Friday, July 13. Challenges of transition: incomplete democratization

Essay-2 (Due in class on Friday, July 13, 2018. Bring hard copy to class and upload the electronic copy to Canvas).
Scholars of democratization have long debated whether transitions from authoritarianism/totalitarianism result in democracy. Some scholars suggest that Russia is a diminished type of democracy, while others argue that Russia is a diminished type of authoritarianism. How would you characterize the regime type in Russia? What are the impediments to democratic transition in Russia? In your answer, make sure to (a) outline the central elements of democracy (polyarchy), (b) describe the alternatives to full-fledged democracy, and (c) explain which elements are met or compromised in Russia.

Saturday AM, July 14. The Politics of Memory
2. Other readings TBD

Saturday PM, July 14. Color Revolutions

Sunday AM, July 15. Georgia, Euromaidan, Crimea, and Ukraine-Russia conflict

Sunday PM, July 15. Civil Society in Eastern Europe

Essay-3 Topic TBD (due on July 29, 2018 in Canvas)

Class Participation and Essay Guidelines:

The instructor will be available to students via e-mail or telephone before the course. It is important that students regularly check their OU email and Canvas in the weeks prior to the start of the course and during the course.

1. Participation. This is a discussion-based class. Each student's participation is essential for its success, and good participation requires good preparation. All students are expected to read the assigned material prior to each class and actively engage in discussion. Student participation will be measured by quality rather than quantity of contributions.
2. Essay guidelines.
   a. Start by clearly stating your argument – what is it that you are explaining, arguing, or disagreeing with?
   b. Use the literature you've read for class to support your argument.
   c. Cite all the sources for ideas and direct quotations. Make sure to include the author, the year, and page(s) if you are quoting the text or the author and year if you are referring to ideas or concepts. Examples:
      i. Mearsheimer (2014) argues that the West is responsible for the conflict between Russian and Ukraine
      ii. According to Robert Dahl, “democracy requires not only free, fair, and competitive elections, but also the freedoms that make them truly meaningful” (Diamond 2002, 22).
   d. Include the list of all cited work. You can use any citation style as long as you are consistent.
Grading:
This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D, or F. This is a 3 credit hour course that requires three written assignments of about 1500 words each (approximately 5-6 double-spaced pages) and active participation in class discussions.

POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Attendance and participation in interaction, individual assignments, group exercises, simulations, role playing, etc. are valuable aspects of any course because much of the learning comes from discussions in class with other students. It is expected that you attend all classes and be on time except for excused emergencies.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution’s policy regarding “I” (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any “I” (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on “financial aid probation.” If the “I” grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student’s Financial Aid may be suspended make the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student’s academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc…in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc…; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student’s Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at http://studentconduct.ou.edu/

Accommodation Statement

The University of Oklahoma is committed to making its activities as accessible as possible. For accommodations on the basis of disability, please contact your local OU Site Director.

Adjustment for Pregnancy/Childbirth-Related Issues

Should you need modifications or adjustments to your course requirements because of documented pregnancy-related or childbirth-related issues, please contact me as soon as possible to discuss. Generally, modifications will be made where medically necessary and similar in scope to accommodations based on temporary disability. Please see http://www.ou.edu/content/eoo/faqs/pregnancy-faqs.html.
Title IX Resources

For any concerns regarding gender-based discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, stalking, or intimate partner violence, the University offers a variety of resources, including advocates on-call 24/7, counseling services, mutual no-contact orders, scheduling adjustments, and disciplinary sanctions against the perpetrator. Please contact the Sexual Misconduct Office at smo@ou.edu or (405) 325-2215 (8-5), or the Sexual Assault Response Team at (405) 615-0013 (24/7) to report an incident. To learn more about Title IX, please visit the Institutional Equity Office’s website at http://www.ou.edu/content/eoo.html

Course Policies

Advanced Programs policy is to order books in paperback if available. Courses, dates, and professors are subject to change. Please check with your OU Site Director. Students should retain a copy of any assignments that are mailed to the professor for the course. Advanced Programs does not provide duplicating services or office supplies.
