

Aaron Fulkerson

Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Schnake Turnbo Frank

Coaching is the most dynamic, customizable and real time approach for addressing issues and promoting excellence into today's work environment. Dynamic leaders understand individual and organizational needs and are able to adapt their approach based on any given circumstance. Coaching provides the platform for leaders to address any situation from conflict resolution to performance management to rewards and recognition.

Session Topic: Business Confronts Educational Impact---Coaching For Performance In A College Or University Setting.

Participants will understand the fundamentals of coaching and different styles they can integrate into their own approach.