IAS 5373-492: Media Conflict in Latin America

Course Description:

Latin America is a region that has been shaped by conflict. Today people in many Latin American countries live in a state of strife or discontent. Revolutions, civil wars, drug wars and other types of armed struggles are a reality in Latin America. Government propaganda, news coverage, and social media have altered the way we understand the concepts of war and peace in the region. Students will study how revolutions, conflicting political ideologies, and the Cold War have shaped Latin America along with other historical forces. In addition to understanding conflict, we will also examine ways that traditional and social media can help diffuse tensions. This course will feature important academic texts as well as real-world examples from journalists and revolutionary leaders.

Course Objectives:

1. In this course students will learn to identify various types of conflict as well as understand the historical roots of present-day wars and armed struggles in Latin America.
2. They will analyze the media portrayal of conflicts and be able to critically discuss media coverage.
3. Students will also demonstrate competencies in how both traditional and social media can be used to reduce conflict.

Class Schedule (Subject to Change)

Module	Topic	Readings	Written Work
1	Introduction to Conflict in Latin	Artz/Rodriguez	Module 1 Assignment: Response Paper
1	Background of Power Structures/Traditional War/Conflict	Artz	NA
2	Immigration/Language & Conflict	NA	Module 2 Assignment: Research Milestone Paper
2	Drug Trade & Conflict	NA	NA
3	Gender & Conflict	Belli	NA
3	Dictators & Conflict	NA	NA
3	Alternatives to Conflict	Rodriguez	NA

*Final Papers are due 1 Week after the last class date. January 7, 2020

Assignments:*Discussion Board Participation

Each student will receive points (up to a maximum of 30) each week for a well-developed post which answers the prompt/question posed by the instructor. Each student will receive points (up to 20) for responding to the posts of at least 2 classmates' posts each week. The total maximum points are 50 per week. These posts should be grounded in course readings, research conducted by the student and personal experience. It is also expected that students will treat others with respect during these discussions.

Response Paper

You should write a 3-page response to a chapter from the Artz book. Each paper should be double-spaced and follow APA style. I encourage you to choose a chapter that relates to a country in Latin America that interests you. This interest can be based on a country or the concept presented in the chapter. In this paper you must include the following information: (1) address the key points in the reading, (2) discuss any concerns or criticisms you have of the reading, and (3) develop questions for discussion arising from the reading.

Research Milestone

Each student will prepare a 3-page paper that is essentially the start of the final paper (not the first 3 pages). You can use this directly in your final paper just taking into consideration the instructor's comments. The student will use a minimum of 3 scholarly sources in this paper. The paper will explain the context of an historical or contemporary conflict in Latin America and combine into the context of a particular nation. You may choose any medium television, radio, newspaper, new media, etc.) to analyze the conflict.

Course Topics

Research Paper:

Each student will conduct an in-depth investigation on a past or recent conflict in Latin America. The student may choose any mediated form (television, radio, newspaper, new media, etc.) as a lens through which we view(ed) that particular conflict. Examples include (but are not limited) to:

Newspaper Coverage of the Falklands War

Radio in Colombia

Twitter in the Venezuela Uprising

Film portrayal of Chile

TV Show illustrating Mexican Drug Violence

This paper will be between 8-10 pages. This paper will be due 1 week after the last day of class.

Grading:

This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D, or F.

No extra credit is offered in this course. Final grades are not “curved.” The point scale is based on 500 points possible and is as follows:

Assignment	Points Earned	Points Possible
Discussion Board Participation (2 weeks)		100 (50 each)
Response Paper (Module 1 Assignment)		100
Research Milestone Paper (Module 2 Assignment)		100
Final Research Paper		200
Total		500

Notice: Failure to meet assignment due dates could result in a grade of I (Incomplete) and may adversely impact Tuition Assistance and/or Financial Aid.

Policy for Late Work:

Please contact the professor regarding his/her policy for late work

Attendance Policy:

In addition to interaction via Canvas and email contact, students are required to contact the instructor via email or telephone before the beginning of the course term for an initial briefing. Although physical class meetings are not part of this course, participation in all interactive, learning activities is required.

Student assignments and student/instructor communications will be conducted via Canvas, although students may contact the instructor via telephone, postal mail, email, or fax as needed

Incomplete Grade Policy:

A grade of “I” is not automatically assigned, but rather must be requested by the student by submitting to the instructor a “Petition for and Work to Remove an Incompleted Grade” form. An “I” can never be used in lieu of an “F” nor can an “I” be assigned because of excessive failure to participate in class activities.

Technical Support Information:

If you experience technical problems, contact Information Technology by visiting their website at: <http://webapps.ou.edu/it/> or contacting them by telephone at: (405) 325-HELP (4357).

POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Note: Attendance/absences do not apply to online courses. However, participation in all course activities is extremely important to student success in online courses.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution's policy regarding "I" (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any "I" (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on "financial aid probation." If the "I" grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student's Financial Aid may be suspended making the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student's academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc...in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc...; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student's Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students\_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at <http://studentconduct.ou.edu/>

Accommodation Statement

The University of Oklahoma is committed to making its activities as accessible as possible. For accommodations on the basis of disability, please contact your local OU Site Director.

Adjustment for Pregnancy/Childbirth-Related Issues

Should you need modifications or adjustments to your course requirements because of documented pregnancy-related or childbirth-related issues, please contact me as soon as possible to discuss. Generally, modifications will be made where medically necessary and similar in scope to accommodations based on temporary disability. Please see <http://www.ou.edu/content/eoo/faqs/pregnancy-faqs.html>.

Title IX Resources

For any concerns regarding gender-based discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, stalking, or intimate partner violence, the University offers a variety of resources, including advocates on-call 24/7, counseling services, mutual no-contact orders, scheduling adjustments, and disciplinary sanctions against the perpetrator. Please contact the Sexual Misconduct Office at smo@ou.edu or (405) 325-2215 (8-5), or the Sexual Assault Response Team at (405) 615 -0013 (24/7) to report an incident. To learn more about Title IX, please visit the Institutional Equity Office's website at <http://www.ou.edu/content/eoo.html>

Course Policies

Advanced Programs policy is to order books in paperback if available. Courses, dates, and professors are subject to change. Please check with your OU Site Director. Students should retain a copy of any assignments that are mailed to the professor for the course.

Any and all course materials, syllabus, lessons, lectures, etc. are the property of professor teaching the course and the Board of Regents of the University of Oklahoma and are protected under applicable copyright.
