GEOG 6230-101: Seminar in Economic Geography: Geography and the World Economy

Course Description:

This course introduces the field of economic geography from an institutional perspective. Various urban development and natural resource challenges are examined to illustrate the role that geography plays in economic processes. Contemporary approaches to economic geography are critiqued, including relational economic geography, the creative economy, and environmental economic geography. Course assignments are intended to provide a practical understanding of societal decision-making processes and the resulting environmental, social and economic implications. Case studies focus on processes for developing the next stage of international relations in the context of emerging global economic challenges and differing national responses.

Assignments, Grading and Due Dates:

Major Term Paper:

Each student will write a 10-page double-spaced paper, with 12-point Times New Roman font. The paper must answer the following question: What is the role of geography in understanding innovation as a driver of economic development? The page limit excludes reference page, title page, and any charts or graphs. Students must cite a minimum of 10 refereed journal articles as sources in the text, in addition to websites and government documents as needed.

Environmental Kuznets Curve:

In groups of 3, find two peer reviewed journal articles on the Environmental Kuznets Curve (EKC). Read these articles, find a definition of the EKC, give examples of the types of pollutants that have been shown to display the inverted U-shaped curve, and describe various explanations for the EKC that the studies focus on. Next, find data for CO₂ or greenhouse gas emissions for a country, state, or city. Then, find and/or calculate GDP per capita figures for that same jurisdiction. Calculate and display the EKC on a graph for your jurisdiction following best practices from the literature.

Test:

The test will be based on the readings from the textbook and on Canvas. It will contain multiple choice and true and false questions. The test will be done in class at the end of the second week's class.

Participation:

Participation grades will be assigned based on regular and enthusiastic discussion, as well as during the group role play assignments conducted in class. Students must also complete the required readings prior to each week's class.

Grading:

This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D, or F.

Assignment	Due Date	Percent of Grade
Assignment for EKC	Due: October 6, 2019 , Submit to Canvas Dropbox	20%
Test	Due: October 6, 2019 , In class	20%
Economic Transition Paper	Due: October 11, 2019 , Submit to Canvas Dropbox	40%
Class Participation	During class sessions	20%

Notice: Failure to meet assignment due dates could result in a grade of I (Incomplete) and may adversely impact Tuition Assistance and/or Financial Aid.

POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Attendance and participation in interaction, individual assignments, group exercises, simulations, role playing, etc. are valuable aspects of any course because much of the learning comes from discussions in class with other students. It is expected that you attend all classes and be on time except for excused emergencies.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution's policy regarding "I" (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any "I" (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on "financial aid probation." If the "I" grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student's Financial Aid may be suspended making the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student's academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc...in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc...; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student's Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at <http://studentconduct.ou.edu/>

Accommodation Statement

The University of Oklahoma is committed to making its activities as accessible as possible. For accommodations on the basis of disability, please contact your local OU Site Director.

Adjustment for Pregnancy/Childbirth-Related Issues

Should you need modifications or adjustments to your course requirements because of documented pregnancy-related or childbirth-related issues, please contact me as soon as possible to discuss. Generally, modifications will be made where medically necessary and similar in scope to accommodations based on temporary disability. Please see <http://www.ou.edu/content/eoo/faqs/pregnancy-faqs.html>.

Title IX Resources

For any concerns regarding gender-based discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, stalking, or intimate partner violence, the University offers a variety of resources, including advocates on-call 24/7, counseling services, mutual no-contact orders, scheduling adjustments, and disciplinary sanctions against the perpetrator.
