

Jennifer Coonce is an Assistant Professor of Practice in the Department of Management at OSU. Raised in Stillwater, Jennifer has spent the past 16 years living in New York City. She served as the Chief Information Security Officer at UBS Wealth Management, where she was responsible for the execution of the security risk assessments and provided security advisory support for legal, compliance, and numerous lines of business. After leaving the financial services industry, she was appointed the Vice President of Retail for Dolce Vita. Jennifer started her career in the Information Risk Management Group at KPMG, LLP in Dallas.

Leveraging her diverse corporate background and risk management experience, Jennifer focuses on ethical decision making and ethical leadership. She teaches Management and Ethical Leadership, a required ethics course for all management majors. Jennifer also serves as co-advisor for the NASBA Student Center for the Public Trust Chapter for OSU that was founded in spring of 2019.