HR 5013-493: Current Problems in Human Relations

Course Description:

This course is designed to expose seminar participants to an in-depth scholarly, objective, and professional analysis of some of the major human relations problems facing our society. Specifically, this course concentrates on the problem areas of social inequality (class, gender, and race), intrapersonal and interpersonal tension (individual stress and personal relations in groups and with others), and intra/inter group tension (multicultural and multinational). Also, the course provides recent contextual, demographic, and statistical data bearing on these problems. In addition to major social changes and consequences, policies, and strategies to address these are identified, analyzed, and assessed relative to past and future effectiveness.

The course is developed and revolves around major conceptualizations of human relations problems, changes, and policy considerations. A wide variety of teaching and instructional approaches are employed in the course.

Course Dates:

September 1 – December 31, 2020

Last day to enroll or drop without penalty: August 3, 2020

Assignments, Grading, and Due Dates:

Points to remember:

1. These class meetings are considered a valued and important part of the learning experience and students are expected to be prepared and participate in the online discussion.
2. Please check and use your OU email account.
3. For every day, an assignment is late, you will receive 2 reduced grade points.
4. If I did not respond to your email in 48 hours, please email me again.
5. Please check my posting on the Canvas course home page.
6. Please upload an image to your personal profile on Canvas.

Discussion Board Participation:

you will post your views and deconstruct the reading in a professional manner. Discussion policy is included in the syllabus.

Discussion tab on Canvas at Canvas.ou.edu. 45 points.

Elements included in the evaluation of discussion board participation will include evidence of critical thinking, clear identification of the issue, understanding of the problems, and the ability to propose and evaluate solutions. All participants are expected to welcome open expression of opinion, attitudes, and beliefs and to accept the legitimacy and value of dissent. In addition to respect for the ideas of your classmates and the instructor, common courtesy is also expected. There are 3 discussion points for every issue. However, 2 points and one point is allocated for inadequate participating (See the rubric below). You are expected to post your original response on the issue and response to the class discussion. You are expected to post an original response pertaining to issues of the reading and post few responses to the comment of a classmate. I encourage you to read other students' postings.

Discussion Rubric:

Criteria	Unacceptable 0 Points	Acceptable 1 Point	Good 2 Points	Excellent 3 Points

White Privilege Paper.

The paper is concerned with your personal thoughts and comments on the assigned book chapter on White Privilege. However, in order to obtain a grade of (A) you need to integrate your thoughts with the reading material and make sure you include citations while discussing/analyzing the reading. It is important to argue the reading in a professional way by presenting a well-organized, persuasive argument with accurate, supporting evidence. Include an introduction, a brief summary of the reading, your argument with supporting evidence, and a conclusion. (Please refer to the attached rubric which will help you.) The intention of this paper is not to agree or disagree with the authors, but rather to argue the different perspectives. Paper: 6-7 double-spaced pages, this would not include the cover page and reference page, each paper is to be formatted using American Psychological Association (APA). A minimum of 7 references for (e.g., refereed journal articles, books, monographs, or government reports) are expected (No Wikipedia or online sites).

Full credit for this assignment White Privilege Paper is worth 15 points

Reaction Paper:

the reaction paper is a scholarly forum and its intent is to respond to one of the readings and you are expected to cite outside academic references. This assignment is not to exceed 7 double-spaced pages, exclusive of attachments and references; this would not include the cover page and reference page, each paper is to be formatted using American Psychological Association (APA). A minimum of 7 references for (e.g., refereed journal articles, books, monographs, or government reports) are expected (No Wikipedia or online sites). It is important the structure of the paper is clear by having heading and subheadings to the argument.

Full credit for this assignment is worth 10 points

Review of a Book Paper:

Each student is responsible for reading and writing a review of a book of your choice which presents a current social problem and approved by the instructor. You need to check with the professor on the book before starting. Additionally, each student is expected to write his/her thoughts, questions, and challenges in implementing solutions to the social problem. The outline for the book review will be provided to students in advance of the beginning of the course, posted on Canvas. This assignment is not to exceed 7-9 double-spaced pages, this would not include the cover page and reference page, each paper is to be formatted using American Psychological Association (APA). I highly recommend that you start researching a topic and communicate with me soon about a book. Post your paper via a link on Canvas. APA format, 7-9 pages in length, plus a separate reference page; 7-9 scholarly references (No Wikipedia or online sites). It is important the structure of the paper is clear by having heading and subheadings to the argument.

- Within the book review paper, you will discuss the following:
- State the theme or the research statement of the book.
- Why is the theme discussed in the book?
- How is this theme connected to current problems?
- Present the authors proposed argument supporting the books theme.
- Provide at least 3 critiques on the book or the theme. Critiques are not necessarily in opposition to each other to the book's theme, but rather provide multi-perspectives to the understanding of the issue. The critique should be supported by refereed journal articles (No Wikipedia or online sites).
- Integrate the discussion of the book with the critiques.
- Reflect on how the book and the process of writing enforce or contradict some of your personal beliefs regarding the issue(s) discussed in the book.

Full credit for this assignment, Review of Book Paper is worth 20 point

Summary Post of the Book Report:

Post a summary of the book in a format of a discussion. There will be discussion board designated to this assignment. You need to follow the same guideline as the online discussion

Full credit for this assignment, Review of Book Paper is worth 10 point

Grading:

This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D, or F.

The final grade will be determined on the basis of the following

Final due date to have all assignments in is December 31, 2020

Assignment	Percentage
Online Participation	45%
White Privilege Paper	15%
Book Review Paper	20%
Reaction Paper	10%
Discuss Book Report	10%
Total	100%

Notice: Failure to meet assignment due dates could result in a grade of I (Incomplete) and may adversely impact Tuition Assistance and/or Financial Aid.

Quality of Written Papers and Oral Reports/Presentations

All written reports/papers must be typewritten and include references and bibliographies, following the format described in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA) (6th ed.). The paper will include a title page, appropriate citations within the text of the paper and a reference page. Please refer to the APA standards. In addition, the paper should be carefully researched, grammatically correct and neat in appearance. You will be penalized for poorly written papers and poorly presented oral reports. I highly recommend accessing the Writing Center Facility at OU.

Policy for Late Work:

Please contact the professor regarding his/her policy for late work

Attendance Policy:

In addition to interaction via Canvas and email contact, students are required to contact the instructor via email or telephone before the beginning of the course term for an initial briefing. Although physical class meetings are not part of this course, participation in all interactive, learning activities is required.

Student assignments and student/instructor communications will be conducted via Canvas, although students may contact the instructor via telephone, postal mail, email, or fax as needed

Incomplete Grade Policy:

A grade of "I" is not automatically assigned, but rather must be requested by the student by submitting to the instructor a "Petition for and Work to Remove an Incompleted Grade" form. An "I" can never be used in lieu of an "F" nor can an "I" be assigned because of excessive failure to participate in class activities.

Technical Support Information:

If you experience technical problems, contact Information Technology by visiting their website at: <http://webapps.ou.edu/it/> or contacting them by telephone at: (405) 325-HELP (4357).

POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Note: Attendance/absences do not apply to online courses. However, participation in all course activities is extremely important to student success in online courses.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution's policy regarding "I" (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any "I" (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on "financial aid probation." If the "I" grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student's Financial Aid may be suspended making the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore, all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student's academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc....in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc....; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student's Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students\_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at <http://studentconduct.ou.edu/>

Accommodation Statement

The University of Oklahoma is committed to making its activities as accessible as possible. For accommodations on the basis of disability, please contact your local OU Site Director.

Adjustment for Pregnancy/Childbirth-Related Issues

Should you need modifications or adjustments to your course requirements because of documented pregnancy-related or childbirth-related issues, please contact me as soon as possible to discuss. Generally, modifications will be made where medically necessary and similar in scope to accommodations based on temporary disability. Please see <http://www.ou.edu/content/eoo/faqs/pregnancy-faqs.html>.

Title IX Resources

For any concerns regarding gender-based discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, stalking, or intimate partner violence, the University offers a variety of resources, including advocates on-call 24/7, counseling services, mutual no-contact orders, scheduling adjustments, and disciplinary sanctions against the perpetrator. Please contact the Sexual Misconduct Office at smo@ou.edu or (405) 325-2215 (8-5), or the Sexual Assault Response Team at (405) 615 -0013 (24/7) to report an incident. To learn more about Title IX, please visit the Institutional Equity Office's website at <http://www.ou.edu/content/eoo.html>

Course Policies

Advanced Programs policy is to order books in paperback if available. Courses, dates, and professors are subject to change. Please check with your OU Site Director. Students should retain a copy of any assignments that are mailed to the professor for the course.

Any and all course materials, syllabus, lessons, lectures, etc. are the property of professor teaching the course and the Board of Regents of the University of Oklahoma and are protected under applicable copyright.
