EXTENDED CAMPUS BULLETIN
September 2017 - 2019

Following is the disenrollment policy as outlined on page 38 of the OU College Graduate Bulletin:

Options for Disenrolled Students

- A student who has been disenrolled from a graduate program may apply to a graduate program in another major field. Admission will be contingent on the recommendation of the academic unit and the approval of the Dean of the Graduate College. –
 - A doctoral student disenrolled after accumulating nine credit hours of grades C, D, and/or F in any combination is ineligible for admission to another doctoral program, but may be considered for admission to a master's program in which the student does not already hold a master's degree. ♣
- At the time of the new admission, the student must satisfy all applicable requirements under the rules and regulations of the University of Oklahoma, its colleges, and its academic units. ♣
- A student admitted to a master's program after being disenrolled from their previous graduate program should review the policy on Application of Credit from an Unsuccessful Master's Degree to Another Master's Degree or Application of Credit from an Unsuccessful Doctoral Degree to a Master's Degree (page 45 of the Graduate College Bulletin).
- A student admitted to a doctoral program after being disenrolled from their previous graduate program should review the policy on Application of Credit from an Unsuccessful Graduate Degree Program to Another Graduate Degree Program.
