COLLEGE of PROFESSIONAL and CONTINUING STUDIES

IAS 5793-101: Graduate Studies in International Relations

Course Description:

This course is designed to provide International Relations students with a foundation for success in MAIR program coursework by focusing on analytical writing skills in the context of contemporary global issues and critical concepts and foundational works in international relations theory. The course will focus on effective analytical writing in the field of international relations. Students will read compelling analytical essays addressing contemporary global issues and will discuss both the substance and the structure of the arguments. With these essays as models, students will work on their own analytical writing through practice, review, and rewriting.

The instructor will be available for consultation via-email and video teleconference to provide students guidance on papers and answer any other questions regarding the course. All students should check Canvas regularly starting 30-days prior to the first class session for additional information/communication from the instructor.

Please use the American Psychological Association (APA), Chicago Manual of Style, or Modern Language Association (MLA) for your pre-and post-course papers. Additional formatting guidance can be found at the OU Writing Center: <http://www.ou.edu/writingcenter/>. All papers must follow one of these academic formatting styles including a correctly formatted Works Cited/Reference page at the end of the paper.

The instructor will provide student grades and feedback via Canvas.

1. Pre-Class Paper

Objective - The objective of this assignment is to develop and refine your ability to critically review the rich literature of international relations.

Instructions: Students will select and review ONE article from the course readings (Posted in Canvas). The objective of this assignment is to develop your skills in analyzing academic work. Please answer the following questions in your paper:

1. What is the principal thesis in the article? What central argument does the author present?
2. How does the author build the case for his/her position?
2. What are the strengths of the arguments made in the article?
3. What are the weaknesses of the arguments made in the article?
4. How would you rate the value of this work? How persuasive is the author in presenting evidence and defending his argument?
5. What are the significant unanswered questions?

The paper should be 1500 words (+ or – 200 words) long and written according to one of the academic formats discussed above. Upload your assignment to the Canvas assignment page prior to the assignment deadline. Please upload using only the following file formats: docx, doc, or pdf. Microsoft Word documents are preferred as that format allows the instructor to provide feedback using the Microsoft Word track changes feature. The instructor will provide grading and feedback information via Canvas.

2. Class Discussion Participation

To maximize learning opportunities for all members of the class, we will engage in frequent, open discussions during the course. The success of the course is dependent upon the quality of discussion. The instructor will evaluate the quality of the discussion/participation as a component of the final course grade for each student.

3. Final Exam

Objective: The exam is designed to assess your knowledge of information presented from the readings, lecture, and discussion during the course.

Instructions: The instructor will administer the final exam in class during the final class session. See the Canvas Quiz page for instructions and the exam questions. This information will only be available when the instructor administers the exam.

4. Post-Class Paper

Objective: The objective of this assignment is to develop your ability to analyze current international relations issues using an international relations theoretical perspective.

Instructions: For this paper you will explore an international relations topic through a theoretical lens. Students will submit: 1) their topic and 2) the name of the international relations theory you will use to evaluate the IR issue. Please communicate these two pieces of information to the instructor via the Canvas Discussion Board no later than the deadline specified in the assignment table above. You MAY choose a topic another student has selected.

The paper should be 2000 words (+ or – 200 words) long and written using one of the recognized academic formats (APA, MLA, Chicago Manual of Style). Upload your assignment to the Canvas assignment page prior to the assignment deadline. Please upload using only the following file formats: docx, doc, or pdf. Microsoft Word documents are preferred as that format allows the instructor to provide feedback using the Microsoft Word track changes feature. The instructor will provide grading and feedback information via Canvas.

Grading:

This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D, or F.

Notice: Failure to meet assignment due dates could result in a grade of I (Incomplete) and may adversely impact Tuition Assistance and/or Financial Aid.

Policy for Late Work:

Assignments must be uploaded to Canvas (Assignments Section) and will incur a 10-point penalty for each day the assignment is late. The instructor may grant modest deadline extensions required by urgent circumstances, if requested before the due date.

Incomplete Grade Policy:

The instructor will not automatically assign a grade of “I”. The student must request consideration of an incomplete by submitting a “Petition for and Work to Remove an Incomplete Grade” form to the instructor. An “I” can never be used in lieu of an “F” nor can an “I” be assigned because of excessive failure to participate in class activities.

POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Attendance and participation in interaction, individual assignments, group exercises, simulations, role playing, etc. are valuable aspects of any course because much of the learning comes from discussions in class with other students. It is expected that you attend all classes and be on time except for excused emergencies.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution's policy regarding "I" (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any "I" (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on "financial aid probation." If the "I" grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student's Financial Aid may be suspended making the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

OU faculty will submit grades online through ONE not later than 30 days after the course end date. Course end dates are approximately one calendar month after the final seminar date on this syllabus and are provided on the official scheduling website for reference.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore, all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student's academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc...in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc...; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student's Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students\_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at <http://studentconduct.ou.edu/>

Accommodation Statement

The University of Oklahoma is committed to making its activities as accessible as possible. For accommodations based on disability, please contact your local OU Site Director.

Adjustment for Pregnancy/Childbirth-Related Issues

Should you need modifications or adjustments to your course requirements because of documented pregnancy-related or childbirth-related issues, please contact me as soon as possible to discuss. Generally, modifications will be made where medically necessary and similar in scope to accommodations based on temporary disability. Please see <http://www.ou.edu/content/eoo/faqs/pregnancy-faqs.html>.

Title IX Resources

For any concerns regarding gender-based discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, stalking, or intimate partner violence, the University offers a variety of resources, including advocates on-call 24/7, counseling services, mutual no-contact orders, scheduling adjustments, and disciplinary sanctions against the perpetrator. Please contact the Sexual Misconduct Office at smo@ou.edu or (405) 325-2215 (8-5), or the Sexual Assault Response Team at (405) 615 -0013 (24/7) to report an incident. To learn more about Title IX, please visit the Institutional Equity Office's website at <http://www.ou.edu/content/eoo.html>

Course Policies

The OU College of Professional and Continuing Studies (PACS) policy is to order books in paperback if available. Courses, dates, and professors are subject to change. Please check with your OU Site Director. Students should retain a copy of any assignments that are mailed to the professor for the course. PACS does not provide duplicating services or office supplies.

All course materials, syllabus, lessons, lectures, etc. are the property of professor teaching the course and the Board of Regents of the University of Oklahoma and are protected under applicable copyright.
