

OACUBO Conference - November 3, 2020, 1:30 – 2:30 p.m.

Legal Updates – Title IX Revisions and Tips for Limiting COVID-19 Liability

What Will You Learn: This session will provide higher education business professionals the latest information concerning Title IX Regulations, and potential liability exposure and how to limit related to COVID-19 and higher ed campuses.

- Participants will learn about the major changes in Title IX procedures on college campuses
- Participants will be exposed to the potential for COVID-19 related liability claims on college campuses and how to minimize the risks

Who Should Attend:

- Vice Presidents, AVP's & Managers for Administration, HR, Student Affairs
- Title IX Coordinators
- Business Officers

Course Information:

- Prerequisites: None
- Advanced Preparation: None
- Level: Intermediate
- Type: Group internet-based training
- Length: 50 minutes

Meet The Presenter: Brandee Hancock, Associate General Counsel - The Board of Regents for the Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges

Ms. Hancock is a graduate of Oklahoma State University and earned a J.D. with Honors from the University of Oklahoma School of Law. She provides advice, assistance, and litigation support in a variety of areas, including Open Records, contracts, real estate, Clery Act, Title IX, and student conduct at 5 higher education institutions (Oklahoma State University and its four branch campuses, Oklahoma Panhandle State University, Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College, Connors State College, and Langston University). Most recently, Ms. Hancock has been involved in advising on issues related to the COVID-19 pandemic as it relates to the OSU and A&M campuses.

CPE Information:

- Estimated 1 CPE Credit
- Field of Study: Industry/Government (appropriate field among the four fields provided by OAB guidelines)
- Note: Each person must register individually to earn CPEs