

Robert E. Dixon

Director of Grants and Contracts Financial Administration, OSU

Robert has been a U.S. Department of Education trainer, has been a member of the University of Kentucky's CMBI faculty, and has presented various topics at state, regional, and national workshops and conferences.

He holds degrees from Andrew College, Georgia College, Mercer University, and completed his doctorate at Oklahoma State University.

Session Topic: Ethics in Higher Education: Nine characteristics of an ethical university and how to apply them to their financial positions within the institution.