

EXTENDED CAMPUS

COLLEGE of PROFESSIONAL and CONTINUING STUDIES

IAS 5940-108: Topics in International Studies: U.S. Diplomatic History

Course Description:

This course focuses on the establishment and evolution of U.S. foreign policy from 1776 to the present. It introduces key events and currents and the roles of key players, including the President, National Security Council, State Department, and Congress, in the development of U.S. foreign policy.

This is primarily a lecture course, but with significant use of multimedia sources and class discussions based on documents — text, video, and so on — viewed together in class. Lively and engaged participation from the students is expected.

Assignments, Grading and Due Dates:

Participation:

You will be graded on attendance and contributions to class discussions. You should be an enthusiastic and collegial presence in the classroom at all times. This is an opportunity to perfect your public speaking. To help you in these discussions, you should read the chapters in Paterson when indicated in boldface.

Reading responses:

There are two reading responses, on the McPherson and the Priest and Arkin books, worth 20% each, for a total of 40%. Each reading response will be no less than 2 pages long and no more than 3 pages, typed, and double-spaced (not space and a half). You will lose points for anything outside that range. You will be evaluated on 1) your ability to answer the question and only the question; 2) your historical analysis, that is, your ability to both think abstractly and use concrete evidence from the book; and 3) your mastery of written English. Use only the assigned reading. You can quote it, but do so sparingly and put the page number in parentheses. Footnotes are not necessary. Your task is to answer the following questions and email your papers to alan.mcpherson@temple.edu by the due date:

Reading response #1, due 15 October, on McPherson:

Rank and explain the importance of causes, consequences, and context in US military interventions in Latin America and the Caribbean. In other words, were causes, consequences, or context as a whole most important?

Reading response #2, due 22 October, on Priest and Arkin:

What forces have created the expansion of the National Security State?

Exam:

There will be one final exam for 40% of your grade, based on the textbook, American Foreign Relations: A History, and on lectures. I will provide you with a list of identifications and questions to choose from, as well as with instructions, at the end of class, and you will have until Friday, 9 November at noon to email answers to alan.mcpherson@temple.edu. Do not copy sentences from the textbook in your exam. That is plagiarism and will result in a grade of 0.

Grading:

This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D, or F.

Assignment	Due Date	Percent of Grade
Attendance & Participation	During Class Sessions	20%
Reading Reponse #1	October 15, 2018	20%
Reading Response #2	October 22, 2018	20%
Take-Home Final Exam	November 9, 2018, Noon	40%
Total	N/A	100%

Notice: Failure to meet assignment due dates could result in a grade of I (Incomplete) and may adversely impact Tuition Assistance and/or Financial Aid.

POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Attendance and participation in interaction, individual assignments, group exercises, simulations, role playing, etc. are valuable aspects of any course because much of the learning comes from discussions in class with other students. It is expected that you attend all classes and be on time except for excused emergencies.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution's policy regarding "I" (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any "I" (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on "financial aid probation." If the "I" grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student's Financial Aid may be suspended making the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student's academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc...in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc...; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student's Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at <http://studentconduct.ou.edu/>

Accommodation Statement

The University of Oklahoma is committed to making its activities as accessible as possible. For accommodations on the basis of disability, please contact your local OU Site Director.

Adjustment for Pregnancy/Childbirth-Related Issues

Should you need modifications or adjustments to your course requirements because of documented pregnancy-related or childbirth-related issues, please contact me as soon as possible to discuss. Generally, modifications will be made where medically necessary and similar in scope to accommodations based on temporary disability. Please see <http://www.ou.edu/content/eoo/faqs/pregnancy-faqs.html>.

Title IX Resources

For any concerns regarding gender-based discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, stalking, or intimate partner violence, the University offers a variety of resources, including advocates on-call 24/7, counseling services, mutual no-contact orders, scheduling adjustments, and disciplinary sanctions against the perpetrator. Please contact the Sexual Misconduct Office at smo@ou.edu or (405) 325-2215 (8-5), or the Sexual Assault Response Team at (405) 615 -0013 (24/7) to report an incident. To learn more about Title IX, please visit the Institutional Equity Office's website at <http://www.ou.edu/content/eoo.html>

Course Policies

Advanced Programs policy is to order books in paperback if available. Courses, dates, and professors are subject to change. Please check with your OU Site Director. Students should retain a copy of any assignments that are mailed to the professor for the course. Advanced Programs does not provide duplicating services or office supplies.
